

Europe continues to struggle with economic uncertainty posing severe challenges to businesses, policy-makers and citizens. As part of "Together for Europe", Christians from different places of the economy and business world are coming together to seek a better understanding of the signs of the times, offering experiences and visions about an "economy for the common good" and raise a prophetic voice of hope for a better European economy and society.

Towards an economy for the common good

Venue:
March 6-8, 2015

Polo Lionello Bonfanti
Loppiano,
Figline e Incisa in Valdarno (FI)
Italy

For information
and registration:
e-mail: info@edicspa.com
tel. +39 055 8330400

6 March 2015 • friday afternoon "Signs of the times"

Introduction
Understanding the signs - On the roots of the economic crisis and the role of Christian communities going forward Testimonies
Charismatic economy: the contribution of charisms to the European economy and institutions
Worship

7 March 2015 • saturday "Sharing experiences and ideas: Together for the European economy and society"

Biblical impulse
Round table:
Running business as a community: best practices and reflections from communities and movements
Workshops: discovering economic experiences, debating in small groups, meeting communities, performing with artists from different cultures, cooking or working together in Loppiano farm
Worship and reciprocal blessing
Gen Verde in Concert

8 March 2015 • sunday morning "Signs of hope"

Biblical impulse
Round table:
Sharing economy and culture of giving
Harvest round
Conclusion and Perspective: next steps together
Mass at Loppiano church

Program